COLIN WINS ELEVENTH RACE

COMMANDO'S PEERLESS SON TAKES THE MATRON STAKES FOR COLTS.

Victory Is Easily Won-Stamina Captures the Filly Half of the Same Stake-Whitney Stable Wins Three,

New York, October 7.—There was perfect Indian summer weather for Belmont Park's opening day of its October meeting. Excepting in the first race, the card was rather weak in the number of entries. Three important stakes were down for decision. The success of three favorites right off the reel, Gallavant, Colin and Stamina, encouraged the speculatively inclined public. After that, a second choice, Falcada, and two outsiders, Perseverance and Sea Wolf, won their races. It was a field day for the Whitney colors: A stake—the filly half of the Matron Stakes—and two long distance events, including the historic Jerome Handiseverance and Sea Wolf, won their races. It was a field day for the Whitney colors: A stake—the filly half of the Matron Stakes—and two long distance events, including the historic Jerome Handicap. John Madden's Meelick changed hands an hour before his race in the Matron Stakes. The son of Planudes performed indifferently in the colors of S. C. Hildreth, his new owner.

J. E. Madden also disposed of his two-year-old filly, Queen's Souvenir, to A. W. Claxon. Both horses are intended for racing at Oakland next winter. The terms of sales were not divulged.

Colin lashed out with his near hind leg while being cooled out in the paddock after his victory in the Matron Stakes and a small clod of dirt flew squarely in the right eye of his owner, blinding him for the moment. Mr. Keene laughingly remarked: "I will not object to a dose of this kind from Colin every time he performs like he did today. But," he added, "this makes cleven straight wins for the colt and if I had been treated to a like dose after each of them, I would surely have been stone blind by this time," Colin will appear in public just once more—in the Champagne Stakes and then be retired. He has won over $125,000 and today carried his stable to the front for a world's record as a winning racing organization in one season.

The Injury to the grand old sportsman's eye was evidently very painful and left it quite sore and inflamed looking.

Alfred Noble displayed amazing gameness on the left handed Behnont straightaway, which was aggravated further by the presence in the saddle of an incapable stable lad. Both combined to contribute to his defeat by Falcada in his race, A promineat horseman ventured 'the opinion that Alfred Noble was overdone, but withal the best lifted-year-old prospect, not even excepting the mighty colt of the year.

Sea Wolf, the winner of the closing affair at a mile and five-sixteenths, made his debut on the turf as a three-year-old in a six furlong maiden race at Brighton hast Thursday, On his second attempt today, the unique Meddl horses over a distance of ground in a manner that betokened a rare stayer with all the earmarks of a cup horse.

A band of indifferent race horses, some of which have been very good in former years, went to the post for the first race, at a mile. Gallavant was made the favorite, and finally won in a close finish with the outsider, Quinn Brady. Another long shot, Poquessing, was third. St. Valentine was beaten by a bad start, and from the ground he made up would probably have won if off in the front division. There was nothing to the colts and geldings' division of the Matron Stakes except a variance of opinion as to whether Fair Play or Royal Tourist would finish second. Colin strode to the front when released from restraint and won under a heavy pull. Royal Tourist was unwisely raced after the invincible Colin from the start, with the result that Fair Play came along comparatively fresh in the stretch and easily deprived him of second place. Meetick, in Hildreth's colors, was an added starter, but cut no material figure in the race except that he made up much of the ground he had lost earlier in the contest.

Stamina took the fillies' half of the Matron fully as easily as Colin had won the colis' half, and ran a faster race, due to the fact that Masquerade from the contest.

Masquerade ran an excellent race and stood off Half Sovereign successfully in a game and fast stretch delve. Mombassa ran well and might have been able to do better if her stable mate had needed help.

It was a Whitney day and to Stamina's good contribution Perseverance which had only recently stretch drive. Mombassa ran well and might have been able to do better if her stable mate had needed help.

It was a Whitney day and to Stamina's good contribution, Perseverance, which had only recently graduated from the maiden class, added the spoils of the time-honored Jerome Handicap and stamped herself 'a good filly. McCarter appeared so certain to win, that he went to the post a 3 to 5 first choice and ran an excellent race, but lost by a few inches after a desperately contested drive for over a quarter of a mile. Gretna Green also put up a good performance and was lapped on the other two at the finish.

Alfred Noble was an even-money favorite for the fifth race and should have won off by himself, but an apprentice was on his back and, after leading ensity nearly all the way, the colt was finally beaten a head by Falcada, simply because his rider did not know what to do with him when the Wilson colt came at him. The others were badly beaten, but Robert Cooper ran a good race and is an improving colt and a stayer.

Every one of the four starters for the last race had substantial backing, but Bedouin was finally made the favorite. Third was the best he could do, Sea Wolf landing first past the winning line and giving Mr. Whitney his third race of the afternoon. Don Creole easily defeated Bedouin and the former crack, Cairngorm, was a beaten off last.

There is a mild epidemic of catarrhal fever on the Long Island tracks. Four of Fred Cook's and two of Madden's were suddenly taken with it last week, but are improving.

J. Moran will ship the following horses to Oakland in a few days: King Sol, Banker, Mrs. Delaney, Poquessing, Empress of India and six others.

S. A. McDonald has resigned his position with Evening Journal. He has retired from racing leaves for California within the next ten days settle down permanently.
J. M. Mason departs for Oakland tomorrow. He res his horses behind in P. Winmer's care, will be sent along later on.

George Rose ent in at Belmont and booked dur-ing the afternoon. He said: "Francis Trevelyan will be offered the position of associate judge at Areadia, but may not accept. Ed Cole is our next choice."

George Boles will have books on at both Oakland and Los Angeles next season. Dan Donnelly will book at the Oakland track.

Jockey Herman Radtke has received a good offer to ride in Germany next year for a prominent horseman there and has decided to accept.

Thos. H. Williams will leave for California the latter part of this week.

SHILLING'S DAY AT LATONIA.

Cincinnati, O., October 7.—Disagreeable weather kept all but the hardened regulars away from Latonia today. The track, as a result of the rains, was again muddy. The steeplechase was run in a blinding rainstorm and grave fears existed that most of the starters would not negotiate the course successfully. Blue Pirate, on which McClure had the mount, his first since his suspension last June, won all the way from Fall of Fun. With better handling Pete Vinegar would have given the winner a stout argument. W. K. Slade, ridden by Wickline, slipped approaching the seventh hedge and his rider was unseated.

The first three races were made spirited by the clever riding of Shilling, who piloted inferior horses to victory. In the opener he had the mount on Merrick, favorite. Refined was best, but under a persevering ride Shilling downed her in the last stride. The recently purchased $5,000 Centre Shot was considered best in the second, but again Shilling out-generaled the other riders and took the purse with Miss Sain, a former stable mate of Centre Shot. Rustle also profited by Lycurgus allowing Centre Shot to swerve in the last few strides, and this enabled the Cella filly to take second place. On Dainty Dame in the third Shilling had to ride his best to head out Frontenae in the closing strides, after the latter appeared a certain winner.

Warner Griswell, at a long price, took the fifth after Black Fox, the early pacemaker, had swerved badly and sharply impeded several in the field.

The showing of Toboggan, the receding favorite, was a poor one, and he will do much better on a fast track, when the chances of his bandages becoming less saturated will materially aid him to become less leg weary. Prytania's victory was accomplished enly after considerable humping and swerying, the Clansman suffering sufficiently in the estimation of a number to warrant the prediction that he would have won but for the interference.

Lady Vie disposed of her opponents in the fifth race in handy fashion, but was aided by the best racing l

WINDSOR RACES IN RAIN AND MUD.

WINDSOR RACES IN RAIN AND MUD.

Detroit, Mich., October 7.—Racing at Windsor this afternoon was conducted under unfavorable conditions. About one hour before the running of the first race, a heavy rain set in which continued on and off for the remainder of the afternoon. The track was left deep and holding and this meant that it took a good stout horse to negotiate the footing. It was a typical day for mudders and those who had a good line on these performers, reuped rich rewards. Mode Nicol, the ex-trotting horse driver, furnished two of the winners in Ketchemike and Lexington Lady. Both horses won their races in little better than a canter.

The steeplechase, which was meant for a feature, proved little better than a farce. Only two of the seven starters finished the course without a mishap. The winner turned up in the 50 to 1 shot Bank Holiday, which won off by herself after the favorite, Lester L. Hayman, had fallen at the last jump. Lester L. Hayman made an exhibition of his field up to the time of his mishap. He was leading by half a dozen lengths and took the last jump in his usual bold fashion, but struck a soft spot and his hind legs slipped from under him which caused him to roll over on his side. Bernhardt hung to his horse, but before he could pull him to his feet and remount, Bank Holiday had passed him and had a big lead. Lester L. Hayman finished an easy second, however, as Dr. Koch was so far back that he was practically out of the race. Pemberton managed to get Dr. Koch to get over the jumps and in some sort of fashion he finished over the wings at two of the jumps, while Merry George, in an attempt to bolt the course at the second obstacle, jumped over the inside which he cleared like a bird. Simpson never stopped riding, but continued on after the leaders and was a keen contender until the ninth jump, where he fell. Sam Parmer also came to grief at this jump. Corbley was unable to get Rahph Reese over a single jump. The horse bolted out of the course directly after the start and was pulled up

JAMESTOWN CLOSES: MURRAY DRIFTS.

The Jamestown, Va., meeting has closed. It's boosters naively announce about its closure: "The object of closing the meet at the present time is to keep up the good name of the track." Starter Bill Murray has gone further toward his racing end by a trip to New Orleans, where he will start the horses of the half-mile gambling merry-ground of the Louisiana track.

In the hours of the track putting up its shutters, some held bad man stole the "ringer" Enolia. The club got even by ruling off the parties which operated Enolia. The extent of territory from which they are barred is not given.

The track will open next spring, but no date has yet been fixed by the management of the club, which is said to have lost some $50,000 by its recent venture.

ELECTIONEER LAME AND RETIRED.

New York, October 7.—Electioner came out of the Brighton Cup race so lame that he is not likely to race again this season. This was the reason for his failure in the race after his first mile and a half of sharp contention with Ballot in 2:33. The injury did not develop until the horse had been cooled out. Then he was found to be in a bad condition. The celt has been a failure this season. He has won but one race in eight starts with fwo seconds, one third and four unplaced performances, with $2,680 as his earnings.

LOUISVILLE'S ATTRACTIVE MEETING.

race, possessing a value of $500, and a handsome silver cup, valued at $300.

On the opening day the Frank Fehr Handicap, with $1,000 added, at one mile, will be the feature. The Iroquois Handicap will be run Friday. October 18. It is a six-furlong event, worth $700. On the following day the Autuum Handicap will be decided. It is worth $1,000. The distance is one mile and a sixteenth.

On Tuesday, October 22, the Shawnee Handicap, at seven furlongs, will be run. On the same day there will be a two-year-old handicap, possessing a value of $600, at three-quarters of a mile.

Thursday, October 24, the Cherokee Handicap and a two-year-old handicap are down for decision. The Falls City Handicap, at one mile, worth $1,000, will be run on Saturday, October 25.

The Lorch Cup will be run on the final day of the meeting, November 2.

The prospects point to a meting of unusual success. The track has been resolled and is sure to be lightning fast if the weather is dry.

The meeting will prove a magnet to all turfmen intending to ship to New Orleans and California. There will be scores of horses here which have never before met on the track. This will add class to the sport.

The racing officials will be: Charles F, Price, presiding indge: Charles F, Grainger, associate indge; William Shelley, associate indge; Lyman II. Davis, secretary and handicapper; Jake J, Holtman, starter; Walter II. Pearce, starting judge; John Walsh, paddock judge; George Lindenburger, timer.

THIRTY LEADING JOCKEYS.

C. H. Shilling at Latonia scored the riding honors last week, riding eleven winners. Miller, McDaniel and Englander each rode five, while Lee, Moreland and J. Murphy piloted four each. The standing of the thirty leading jockeys from January 1 to and including the racing of October 5, is as follows:

TENNESSEE RACING TROUBLE.

TENNESSEE RACING TROUBLE.

That there will not be any racing in Tennessee for the next four years at least is the opinion of Captain James H. Rees of Memphis. The New Memphis Jockey Club, he says, has decided to keep its track and grounds at Montgomery Park intact, but is willing to sell the steel grandstand. The anti-betting racing sentiment, which now has hold of the people throughout the state first originated with the holding of a mid-summer meeting at Memphis June 17, to July S, 1905. The business men of that city, theretofore, had always contributed their financial and moral support to the spring meetings. But when the mid-summer meeting was amounced, they not only withheld their financial support, but did everything they could in the way of protest against the venture, even to the extent of forbidding employes from attending, which had never been done before. The antagonism spread to all parts of the state and became a political issue in the state election last fall. Governor Patterson, thought friendly to racing when elected, devoted a paragraph in the original draft of his inaugural message attacking betting on race tracks as pernicious gambling, but was finally persuaded to leave it out of the message read before the legislature. When the Foust anti-racing bill was presented to him for his approval, however, he immediately signed it. Captain Rees is of the opinion that there is little hope for racing during the next administration, no matter which party is victorious at the polls and that if racing is ever again permitted in Tennessee it will be cleanly conducted by Tennessecans on Tennessee ideals and no summer meetings or syndicate betting rings will be tolerated. betting rings will be tol

Through Colin's victory in the Matron Stakes at Belmont Park yesterday, the world's record mark for a winning stable in one season goes to Mr. James R. There will be no purses of less than $400, while the handicaps will range from $600 to $1,000. One or two of these will take place every day. There are to be nine steeplechase events, during the meeting, one every other day.

All of the best timber-toppers that have been racing on the western and Canadian circuits during the season will participate here.

One special feature will be the two-mile cup

OLD NEW ORLEANS COURSE

CRESCENT CITY JOCKEY CLUB PLANT HAS BEEN PRACTICALLY REBUILT.

St Louis' Union Park Steel Grandstand Replaces Old Structure-Modern and Well Appointed Establishment.

New Orleans, La., October 7.—The Crescent City Jockey Club's racing plant will be a revelation to visiting turfmen when they attend the opening, December 9 next. The entire establishment has been practically rebuilt. About $200,000 has been spent on the old place. The work has been under the supervision of Alexander Brewster, one of the directors, and architect Long, since March 31, last, and is now more than three-quarters done. A daily average of 200 workmen has been used from the beginning. The track, when opened, will be as thoroughly modern a racing plant as City Park. The work is to be completed by November 10. None of the beautiful trees or surroundings has been disturbed.

When it was decided to tear away the old grand-stand and old paddock and offices, the entire steel framework of the Union Park racing plant at St. Lonis was purchased and brought to New Orleans. This stand is now in place, is 360 feet long and its tiers of seats may easily be increased, although at present it will easily accommodate from 3,500 to 4,000 people. The tiers of seats are not nearly so steep as at the City Park track, and much room is left on the highest slope to permit of laddes' dressing rooms and the customary open space, which is nearly 200 feet long, and looks down on the betting ring. The betting ring itself is double as large as the old ring and extremely convenient and commodious.

The painting is rapidly being completed, all the

The painting is rapidly being completed, all the carpenter work having been finished, and the work of installing fixtures and building the immense concrete floor for the basement to the stand will take some weeks to accomplish, when the stand will be finished.

The ceilings of both the basement and the grand-stand proper are varnished pine, all steel work and trimmings being in blue. The rich-grained pine makes the color effect blue and gold, delicate and beautiful.

stand proper are varnished pine, all steel work and trimnings being in blue. The rich-grained pine makes the color effect blue and gold, delicate and beautiful.

Besides the thousands of seats in the gradually-rising tiers, there will be the usual boxes in front, all of the stand seats overlooking the track to perfection. The promenade at the top and rear of the grandstand is to be heated.

The paddock, which is one of the biggest in the country, will be closed all around, and none of the thoroughbreds will be allowed to catch cold this winter on account of wind blowing on them between races. It is 72 by 135 feet and contains twenty stalls. The office of the Crescent City Jockey Club will adjoin the paddock, being under the same roof.

The hundreds of stables which flank the course have been thoroughly overhauled and put in excellent repair, new roofs having been given practically all of them. The Crescent City Club has also built a handsome new stable, centaining nearly a hundred stalls, in which the ordinary work horses and stock will be housed.

The reconstruction of the track was begun at the same time with the stand, and hundreds of loads of dirt have been hauled from Gentilly Road and Marigney Canal at considerable expense. Billy Myer, who has a been general superintendent of the track, architect Long's plans calling for it to be moved fifteen feet further east and for the judges' stand to be moved so far up the stretch it will give the Fair Grounds track one of the longest stretches in the country. The track has also been considerably widened so that it now has a stretch eighty-five feet wide all turns and the remainder of the track are seventy feet wide.

SALVIDERE MAY LEAD GELDINGS.

SALVIDERE MAY LEAD GELDINGS.

At Belmont Park Salvidere is in the Municipal Handicap at a mile and three-quarters, to be run Saturday, October 12, and the Belmont Park Autumn Weight for Age Race, which will be run ou the last day of the meeting, Saturday, October 19, over a course of two miles and a quarter. Presumably he will be retired for the year after this race. Being a gelding, he is not likely to be spared next year and if he remains sound and retains his form, has the possibility of winning more money than any gelding of American racing history. So far his record reads:

Year. Sts. 1st. 2d. 3d. Unp. Won. 1906 76 10 0 $51,085 1907 9 3 2 3 1 39,199

Totals 16 9 3 3 1 $91,004 Over in England, Epsom Lad, with $112,533, is said to hold the money winning record for geldings, while Raceland, with $120,120, holds that distinction in the United States. Two other American geldings, Strathmeath and Banquet, each won in excess of $100,000. It can easily be perceived that it requires but the winning of two or three of the big handicaps or rich weight for age stakes as a money reaper.

SHEEPSHEAD BAY IMPROVEMENTS.

The Concy Island Jockey Club is spending a lot of money on its Sheepshead Bay course. After two weeks' work the new chute is about laid out and the reconstruction of the upper turn will begin shortly. The new chute is an extension of the backstretch to the right of the present track and when it is completed the starting places of races at distances ranging from three-quarters to one mile and five furlongs will be situated in it. The start of the next Suburban will be in this new chute.

The improvements will surely be finished before the beginning of the season of 1908. The bad weather of the last fortnight has hampered superintendent Clark and his workers. When the improvements are completed Sheepshead Bay will have a dirt track one mile and three furlongs around, with a mile and a quarter turf course within it and a steeplechase course within the turf course will be followed shortly by the abandonment of the old mile courses of the east which are no longer big enough for first-class racing.

PLANNING A NEW WESTERN CIRCUIT.

The Nebraska Jockey Club, with a capital of $250,000, is being organized at Omaha. Neb. It will build a rac track and give a twenty days' meeting in conjunction with Denver next summer. Salt Lake City is also planning a new race course and a short season of racing after Denver and Omaha. The purpose is to have a western racing circuit, taking in Colorado Springs. Ogden and other places, of about ninety or one hundred days.

NATIONAL STALLION STAKE CHANGES.

NATIONAL STALLION STAKE CHANGES.

Heretofore the fees for nominating stallions to the National Stallion Race have been $50 each, or only $25 for a stallion that had not sired a winner, but the Westchester Racing Association has changed the conditions so materially and on such novel lines, that new interest attaches to the event and its value must be considerably increased from this source. Besides this the added money is raised from $5,000 to $8,000. The new special conditions of the national Stallion Race of 1909 reads follows:

"The twelfth National Stallion Race for two-year-olds, foals of 1907. The progeny of stallions who made the season of 1906 in the United States or Canada, Stallions to be nominated on or before midnight of Tuesday, October 15, 1907, upon the following terms: Stallions whose progeny won in the United States or Canada in either 1904, 1905 or 1906 an aggregate of $200,000 to pay $250 each; of $150,000, to pay $100 each; $100,000, to pay $150 each; $75,000, to pay $100 each; $50,000, to pay $150 each; $75,000, to pay $100 each; $50,000, to pay $30 each; andler $50,000 to pay $20 each; untried stallions to pay $10 each. Bat in any case, stallions who themselves have won the Belmont, Brooklyn Derby, Lawrence Realization, Brighton Cup, Great Republic, American Derby or Annual Champion (if carrying weight for age or more in any of these races), to pay at least $100; of two of these races, $150; of three or more, $200. Imported stallions not to be entered in any case for less than $50 and, if they raced or have had produce in the United States or Canada, to come under the foresoing conditions, if thereby they incur a larger fee, than $50. Winners of the Two Thousand Guineas, Derby, St. Leger, Prix du Jockey Club, Grand Prix de Paris or Prix du Conseil Municipal (when carrying weight for age or more), to more, $250. A winner of a foreign weight for age or conditions of the subscriptions for stallions the nominator of the size of the winner to receive thirty per cent; of the extended the subscrip

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

[Communications without names and addresses of senders will not be answered or noticed; nor will any answers be sent by mail.]

G. H. O., Chicago. The bets should be paid. W. L. K., Chicago. No such race took place. . M. M., St. Louis, Mo. Same reply as to H.

J. M., Chicago. The wager on McCarter was a draw.

O. N., Middletown, O. The place bets on Willis Green and Frescati were draws, there being no separate place betting against either.

C. H., Chicago. Yes, unless the bookmaker rules that omitted starters and added starters run for his book and his patrons have been informed of the rule.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

R. T. Wilson, Jr., has recovered from his recent erious illness and was at Brighton Beach Satur-ay to watch the race for the Brighton Cup.

Billy Pinkerton, who is interested with Sam Hildreth, tells the easterners that Uncle will win the Inaugural scramble at Oakland, that he is satisfied now that Uncle will beat any two-year-old that races in California next winter and win the California Derby. These are strong predic-tions, but likely to be not far out of line.

Went to post at 1:59. At post 11 minutes. Start poor. Won driving; second easily; third the same. Merrick broke fast and had a slight advantage at the start, showed the most early speed and appeared a certain winner on the stretch turn, then tired suddenly but, under a hard drive, finally won out. Refined, favored by the going and showing suddenly improved form, dashed into the lead when well straightened out in the stretch but, under poor riding, tired in the closing strides. No Quarter, a close contender throughout, was best of the others. Clifton Forge came from a long way back an finished gamely. My Queen of the Roses had no mishaps. Agnes Virginia acted fractiously at the post. The winner was entered for 8000; no bid.

Miss Sain, well handled, was reserved in the first half, saved considerable ground into the stretch and, finishing gamely, wore down the leaders and held Rustle safe in the closing strides. Rustle forced a fast pace all the way and, although swerving near the end, came away from Centre Shot in the last seventy yards. Centre Shot was going easily for the first half and, showing the most speed, appeared to hold the others safe in the stretch run, but bore out and tired fast in the closing strides. Complaint ran fairly well, but was beaten off. Ada O. Walker closed up a slight gap. The others were beaten off and outclassed.

Warner Griswell trailed the early leaders and, although coming wide into the stretch, went into the lead when straightened out for the stretch run and won drawing away. Black Fox set the pace in the early stages and stayed well in the stretch after appearing hopelessly beaten. Ben Strong saved much ground on the stretch turn, but was in the worst going and tired near the end. Posing gatned steadily from a slow beginning and showed improvement. Toboggan, after a good display of speed for a half, tired baGly. Electorine can do much better. The winner was entered for $600; no bid.

Winner—Br. c, by The Commoner—Plazza (trained by F. Luzader).

Went to post at 4:38. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving: second and third the same. Prytania, showing suddenly improved form, forced a steady pace and, wearing Dr. Lee Huffman down in the stretch, appeared to be winning easily, but thred and swerved to the inner rail and impeded The Ciansman slightly in the closing strides. The Clansman, under poor riding, ran a good race, saved much ground when coming into the stretch and barely falled to win. Hardshot came from a long way back in the last quarter and was right there at the end. Nellie Burn was stuffled back soon after the start and was gaining at the end. Hazel Paich was forced to go wide most of the way and tired near the end. Br. Lee Huffman quit after going three-quarters. The winner was entered for $1,100; no bid. Winner—Ch. c, by Ornament—Spanker, by St. Serf (trained by T. J. Healey).

Went to post at 2:05. At post 5 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second and third the same. Gallavant broke well and held a good position to the stretch, where he closed up steadily and got ap in the last two strides. Quinn Brady, lucky and having a forward position from the start, hugged the inner rail and drew out in the last furlong like the winner, but succumbed right at the end. Poquessing closed up rapidly in the last half into a fast going third and ran a cracking race. Umbrella, showing remarkable improvement, got away poorly and closed a big gap. Progress made the running to the stretch, where he ran out and tired at the end. Yada, well up all the way, finished gamely and is improving. Belle of Jessamine had scant chance at the start and closed a gap. St. Valentine, nearly left in a collision with Oak Grove at the start, closed an immense gap. The winner was entered for $500; no bld.

Winner—B. c, by Commando—Pastorella (trained by J. Rowe).

Went to post at 2:39. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won cantering; second and third driving.

Colin led from the start on the outside, had only a small advantage the first quarter but, under restraint, came away as his rider pleased when let down and won off easing up. Fair Play, reserved far in the rear of the two leaders, came like a cyclone at the end into a decisively fast going second. Royal Tourist cssayed suicidally to race with Colin and quit very badly at the end. He got a bad ride, but showed brillant speed. Meelick, badly outpaced the first half, closed like a shot. He ran a grand race and would have been second in another stride.

Stamina, seemingly unable to draw clear for half the journey, drew out decisively when beginning the last half and won off. Masquerade helped to force the pace from the start and came away from the clibers at the end find is a good filly. Half Sovereign, reserved close up in the early running, finished with a rush, but could never get up. Mombassa ran prominently for a half and then tired, but ran an extra good race. Went to post at 3:35. At nost 1 minute. Start fair. Won driving; second and third the same, Perseverance maintained close and persistent pursuit of the leaders from the start and ranged alongside McCarter when straightened out for home, getting up finally in a terrific drive after being under the whip for three furlongs. McCarter made the running under a pull and was saved patiently to midway of the stretch, then was bumped repeatedly by the winner and succumbed in the very last stride. Gretna Green, close up throughout, went wide into the stretch, but finished fast and ran a grand race. Yankee Girl, after trailing far in the rear, closed up fast in the last quarter. Monfort, after close attendance on the favorite for a mile, tired finally.

Went to post at 4:05. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Falcada, fast and a stayer, maintained close and persistent pursuit of the favorite from the start, was under the whip to get up and seemed beaten, but scored suddenly and unexpectedly right at the end. Alfred Noble made the running under a pull. but careened all over the course when Falcada loomed up and was finally beaten out under an extremely incompetent ride. Robert Cooper, badly cutpaced in the early running, stood a long and very game closing drive to earn third place and is a stayer. Antaeus was kept well up all the way and put up a game stretch struggle. King's Plate was outclassed here and eropped out beaten after going half the journey.

Baby Wolf forced the pace to the last turn, where he went very wide and then hung as if unbalanced and not in his stride for the first furlong of the stretch, but made good with a whirlwind end rush finally. Don Creole, in close pursuit of the pace, stole through on the inside, hugging the rail, and gained a big lead when straightened for home, but succumbed finally to the winner's line effort at the end. Bedonin ran prominently for half a mile, then tired and was palpably short. Cairngorm was also not keyed up and tired in the closing drive.

7.	Herman Brandt, Barney Schreiber's eastern trainer, declares that Jack Atkin cannot run in the mud.	R
v	"I have tried him in it eight times and he has	1 clares that Jack Atkin cannot run in the mud. I have tried him in it eight times and he has ailed seven times. He goes in it no more," says trandt. Brandt believes Preen can beat Chief layes on a fast track, but he did not think him apable of taking the Sain four-year-old's measure a muddy going. Chief Hayes improves twenty ounds when he strikes a heavy track. Brandt atributes Preen's last victory to good luck. Preen ot a good ride, while Chief Hayes was unskilled by hittle Sumter.

There was nothing Jack Atkin could not do to hief Hayes when the two horses were in Brandt's table, yet Chief Hayes ran from behind Jack tikin in muddy going last Monday and beat him or place Monday in a race won by Don Enrique.
